OFFICERS NAMED FOR CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

SPECIAL CORRESPONDENT TO MORNING JOURNAL

Domingo, N. M., Dec. 25.—The following were elected officers and directors of the Domingo Chamber of Commerce Tuesday evening: J. A. Montoya, president; A. A. Teran, treasurer; Arthur Bartholomew, Carl Peleg, Morris Nordheim, F. G. Vial, Swanson, J. G. Cooper, D. S. D. Swanson and N. A. Botkin, directors. These officers were the only ones that were nominated. The vote was exceedingly tight. The new board will select a new secretary to take the place of W. E. Holt, resigned. Miss Nellie Perkins will continue as the stenographer.

The activities of the chamber of commerce were somewhat circumscribed last night in an effort on the part of the retiring board to hit the load of debt under which the organization has been struggling owing to the large expenditures of former administrations. In this the retiring board was successful. This will make it possible for the new board to launch out in a new effort to build up the community.
